'The Happy Man' By Jr. High Drama Club

On May 24, 1968 at 7:30 PM the Saugus Junior High School Drama Club and the Art and Home Economics Departments are presenting a spring festival of theater, art and fashions.

The Dramatics Club is presenting the fantasy comedy, "The Happy Man." This stylized comedy takes place in the imaginary kingdom of Fernwood. The plot of the play is centered on finding a happy man. The king is very ill, and a doctor prescribes a new and unusual medicine. To recover, the king must wear the shirt of a happy man or woman. The king's daughters set out in search of a happy person. The quest proves far more difficult than the princesses imagined.

Patricia Bilodeau, Judith Trun and Joanne Kelly portray the three precocious princesses. John Fleming is the king who will do anything to recover. The doctor is played by Richard Howell. Daniel Martin is a poor man, and William Sienkewicz plays Lord Grathosom, a stingy miser. His obedient servant is portrayed by Marc Halper. Elaine Livanis is Lady Rosamond, a beautiful, vain lady of the Court whose only interest is herself. Her little servant is Paul Maestranzi who also plays the Happy Man. Susan Upton and Paul Emma are two sweethearts who must overcome the problems of love. A humble washerwoman, who must pay for her son's sins is portrayed by June Cristiano. General Volmar, a power hungry egotist, is played by Michael Gaudet.

The stage crew who designed costumes and built the set are as follows: Debra
